

About the Authors

Larry Chang is a life counselor and teacher of I-sight, a synthesis of the perennial philosophy, the dharma and transpersonal psychology. He has collected and uses many quotations in his work, which he shares in this and a previous anthology, Wisdom for the Soul: Five Millennia of Prescriptions for Spiritual Healing. He has been, in turn and simultaneously, an artist, designer, editor, activist, trader, consultant, restaurateur and publisher. An exile from Jamaica, he was granted asylum based on sexual orientation by the US, where he now lives in Washington, DC.

*One could say of me that in this book I have only made up a bunch of other men's flowers, providing of my own only the string to tie them together.
~ Montaigne ~*

Hailing from Pine Bluff, Arkansas, Roderick Terry is an attorney, author and photographer, currently resident in Washington, D.C. His previous publications are Brother's Keeper: Words of Inspiration for African-American Men and One Million Strong: A Photographic Tribute of the Million Man March.